Exercise programs compliment the slow growth the extender introduces. make your penis grow - These exercise programs are a vital part of the penis enlargement process because they create strength and healthiness into the newly formed tissues. But make sure when you're out buying a penis extender that the product is officially certified to work. Not only does this decrease the chances of harm from the product, but it's more likely to ensure results. make your penis grow - The penis extenders I mention often prove very successful, increases of 2 to 3 inches on average are reported within a three month period of using the products.
